A RECREATION PLAYGROUND

The Lost Sierra is a stunningly beautiful, surprisingly undiscovered area in the northern Sierra Nevada – a true recreational paradise. Anchored by the quaint and historic town of Graeagle located just an hour northwest of Reno and Lake Tahoe, the area offers world class natural beauty and outdoor recreation for all ages, interests and abilities.

FOUR SEASONS OF ACTIVITIES

Annual events fill the calendar year-round. From small-town fun to world class competitive sporting events, the area offers a wide variety of events for young and not-so-young alike. Enjoy triathlons, mountain and road bike events, concerts, farmers markets and annual community events such as the Mohawk Valley Independence Day Celebration, Portola Railroad Days, Gold Discovery Days at Plumas Eureka State Park and the Historic Longboard Revival Race Series at the Plumas Eureka Ski Bowl.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ALL

Every conceivable type of accommodation awaits you in the Lost Sierra. From a modern hotel to new and historic lodges and cabins, bed & breakfasts, motels, condos, RV parks and tent campsites; there's something for everyone.

DISCOVER THE BALANCE

RECONNECT WITH FAMILY

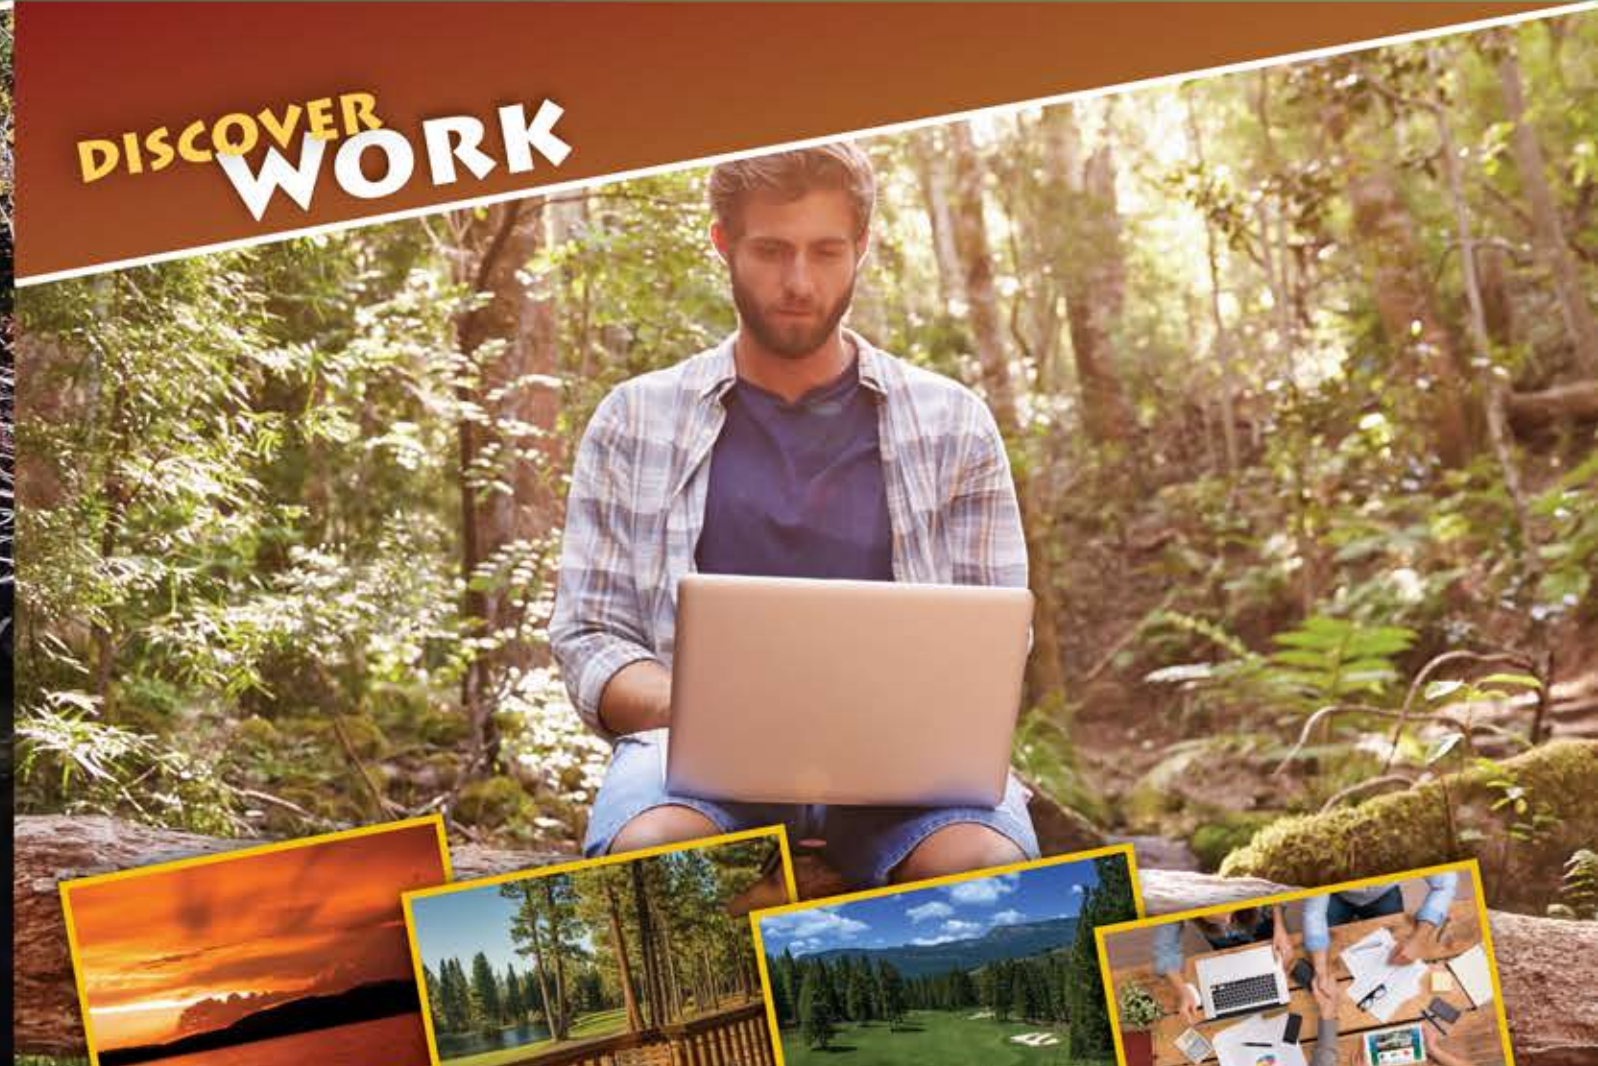

There's something about being surrounded by nature that makes connecting with yourself and your family a natural and relaxed experience. The pace of the forest is slow, allowing space and time to simply be together in a peaceful environment. Treat yourself and your family to the gift of reconnection, you may be surprised at what you discover together.

RECONNECT WITH COMMUNITY

In the Lost Sierra, life's many facets coexist harmoniously. Work, recreation, family, friendships and community flow together with ease. Life is more relaxed and satisfying against a backdrop of natural beauty and deeply rooted community.

In small communities, the contribution of each person is felt more keenly. Whether you come for a visit or are looking to relocate, your contribution can make a difference. Visitors are very welcome at any of the annual fundraisers supporting the many non-profit organizations in the area. For those looking for a special place to relocate there are virtually unlimited opportunities to get involved, such as schools, libraries, fire departments, theater groups, non-profit organizations and more. Discover how big a difference you can make.

DISCOVER WORK

STAY CONNECTED IN THE LOST SIERRA

Work commitments can make getting away a challenge. Yet despite the remote location of the Lost Sierra, woven into the abundant beauty is a technology network that allows you to stay connected while you're here.

With both satellite-based and fiber optic broadband networks and cell coverage from the major providers, visitors can experience a rejuvenating escape while tending to important work and life issues.

DISCOVER A NEW LIFE

Falling in love with the Lost Sierra doesn't have to end when the holiday is over. It can be the beginning of a completely new life. Leave behind the stress, noise, crowds, and traffic of the urban world and relocate yourself, your family and even your business to the Lost Sierra.

With affordable land and home prices and all the essential services including medical clinics, hospitals, emergency services, a community newspaper, and great schools including a two-year college, the dream of living and working in a more relaxed and peaceful environment awaits.
